Criterion 4

Key Indicator – 4.1 Physical Facilities

4.1.1 The Institution has adequate infrastructure and physical facilities for teaching learning. viz., classrooms, laboratories, computing equipment etc.

The institution is committed to providing adequate infrastructure and physical facilities for teaching and learning, ensuring that it aligns with the minimum specified requirements set by statutory bodies like UGC, AICTE, and NAAC.

Classrooms:

The institution boasts spacious, well-ventilated classrooms designed to foster effective learning. Each classroom is equipped with modern audio-visual aids such as projectors, and sound systems to support interactive teaching methods. The seating capacity of classrooms is optimized to provide comfort while facilitating student engagement.

Laboratories:

The institution maintains specialized laboratories for various disciplines, each meeting the specific requirements outlined by statutory bodies:

- Computer Labs: High-performance computers with up-to-date software and access to the internet ensure that students can engage in practical sessions, research, and skill-building activities.

- Language and Communication Labs: These labs are designed with resources to improve language proficiency, equipped with audio-visual tools and software.

Computing Equipment:

The campus is equipped with a robust IT infrastructure, including computers, servers, and a high-speed internet network. The Wi-Fi-enabled campus ensures seamless access to digital resources and e-learning platforms. Computers are regularly updated with the latest industry-standard software, supporting a wide range of academic programs.

Library:

The library is well-stocked with a variety of academic books, journals, e-resources, and digital databases. It provides an ideal environment for research and self-learning, with computer terminals available for students to access online content.

Student Amenities:

The campus also includes necessary student amenities such as cafeterias, common rooms, and washrooms, all of which comply with health and safety regulations.

The institution ensures its infrastructure is regularly updated to meet the evolving needs of the academic curriculum and student welfare.
