Pune, January 12, 2024:

In a collaborative effort aimed at empowering young women, the NSS Department of Foresight College of Commerce, in partnership with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) and the Rotary Club of Pune Camp, organized a transformative event titled ASMITA on National Youth Day. With the participation of 150 enthusiastic girls, the event focused on instilling crucial life skills, including financial literacy, mental health awareness, self-defense techniques, and tech-savviness.

Mr. Amit Mutha, President of the Rotary Club of Pune Camp, extended a warm welcome to all participants, emphasizing the significance of the event in nurturing confidence and resilience among young women.

Addressing the gathering, Asst. Prof. Armaan Shaikh from the NSS Program Office of Foresight College of Commerce, outlined the objectives of the ASMITA event. He stressed the importance of equipping young women with essential life skills to navigate the complexities of the modern world effectively.

The ASMITA event featured interactive workshops and sessions facilitated by experts in various fields. Participants were provided with practical knowledge and tools to enhance their financial management skills, prioritize mental health and well-being, learn self-defense techniques for personal safety, and develop proficiency in utilizing technology for personal and professional growth.

In a significant gesture of support and empowerment, every daughter attending the event was presented with a thoughtful goodie bag containing essential items to enhance their personal safety and well-being.

The contents of the goodie bag included:

Handbook with Multilingual Details: Each participant received a comprehensive handbook containing detailed explanations of the event's themes, with content presented in three different languages. This initiative ensures that the information is accessible to a diverse audience, promoting inclusivity and understanding.

Pepper Spray for Safety: Prioritizing personal safety, each daughter was provided with a pepper spray accompanied by clear instructions on its proper usage. This practical tool aims to empower young women to navigate their surroundings with confidence and resilience.

Multi-Vitamin Tablets Bottle: Recognizing the importance of physical well-being, participants were gifted a bottle of multi-vitamin tablets. This gesture underscores the holistic approach taken by the organizers to address both the mental and physical aspects of a woman's health.

Whistle with Keychain: A symbolic yet practical item, each participant received a whistle with a keychain for convenient and handy use. This small but impactful gift serves as a reminder for young women to raise their voices, seek help when needed, and stand up for themselves.

Mrs. Vaishali Rawalh, Vice President of the Rotary Club of Pune Camp, expressed gratitude to all attendees, organizers, and collaborators for their invaluable contributions to the success of the ASMITA event. She underscored the importance of continued between people. Soft Skills are traditionally considered complementary to Hard Skills, which are the abilities to perform a certain type of task or activity. Soft Skills are strategic to be successful in personal and professional life and are essential for the students when they try to obtain any kind of job.

Enterprises generally hire new employees, in particular recent graduates, taking more in consideration their Soft Skills than their Hard Skills. This happens also for technical professions, because the company, in order to be competitive, needs to create good and effective teams and a collaborative working atmosphere. The departments of the college have organized various types of activities to develop the soft skills of the students enrolled with the institution. These activities of the departments and platforms available helped the learners to learn and acquire soft skills like Communication Skills, Presentation Skills, Written Communication, Interpersonal Skills, Creativity and Leadership etc. In order to improve the communicative abilities of the students they want to Communicate More Effectively. Use Intentional Techniques to Build Stronger

Relationships—Personal and Professional. ...The College Magazine to enhance the written communication of the students play a significant role. The students are given in depth lessons by organizing workshops, state level elocution competition, interfaculty debates and group discussions and expert talks of the quality speakers and the trainers throughout the academic year. These activities benefit the students to enhance the knowledge of use of language and its spoken aspect. It helped the students for their development of communication skills. To improve the Presentation Skills the departments conducted seminars for the students. The students get to participate and perform an active role in the Seminars. Topics are given to them to prepare and present to assess their performance. Every year the departments make the organization of such seminars a regular feature of the campus. The IQAC department conducts this kind of programme which helps the

Types of Tenses

SUBJECT-VERB AGREEMENT RULE BOOK

There are 3 people A, B and C.

- A says to B - "I want to go there". - A refers to "I", the person who is speaking - hence FIRST PERSON
- A asks B - "Do you want to come?" Here B is "you" - he is the person spoken to by A. So B - "YOU" is the SECOND PERSON
- When A asks B - "Do you know how is C doing?" Here A is speaking - so he is first person & B is second person. A is asking B about C. - so C is the THIRD PERSON (C is not physically present)

| PERSON | Definition                                                                | SINGULAR                     | PLURAL     | POSSESSIVE - SINGULAR                    | POSSESSIVE - PLURAL       |

Verbs can change based on

Principal
Foresight College of Commerce
Pune

Tense - Past - present - future

Person - First - second - third

Number - Singular or plural

The subject and verb must agree in person and number.

Once you identify the subject and the verb, you can then determine such agreement of the subject and the verb.

Rules of Subject Verb Agreement

Although you are probably already familiar with basic subject-verb agreement, this chapter begins with a quick review of basic agreement rules.

RULE NO 1

Subjects and verbs must agree in number. This is the cornerstone rule that forms the background of the concept. In these examples the subject is underlined and the verb is in italics

Examples

Singular

noun subject      verb

The dog chases the cat.

singular      singular

no "s"      "s"

Plural

The dogs chase the cat.

plural      plural

"s"      no "s"

In the present tense, nouns and verbs form plurals in opposite ways: nouns ADD an s to the singular form; verbs REMOVE the s from the singular form.

The agreement rules do apply to the following helping verbs when they are used with a main verb: is-are, was-were, has-have, does-do.

Principal
Foresight College of Commerce
Pune

- The girl is talking to me –
  - Girl – subject Singular
  - is talking – singular verb
- The girl was talking to me
  - Girl – subject Singular
  - was talking – singular verb
- The girl has talked to me
  - Girl – subject Singular
  - Has talked – singular verb
- He does the job
  - He – subject Singular
  - Does – singular verb

- The girls are talking to me
  - Girls – subject plural,
  - are talking – plural verb
- The girls were talking to me
  - Girls – subject plural,
  - were talking – plural verb
- The girls have talked to me
  - Girls – subject plural,
  - Have talked – plural verb
- They do the job
  - They – subject plural,
  - Do – plural verb

Examples

Single helping verb:

The girl has talked to me.

singular      singular
no "s"      "s"

The girls have talked to me.

plural      plural
"s"      no "s"

First helping verb in pair of helping verbs:

The girl has been talking to me.

singular      singular
no "s"      "s"

The girls have been talking to me.

plural      plural
"s"      no "s"

RULE NO 2

The number of the subject (singular or plural) is not changed by words that come between the subject and the verb.

One of the eggs is broken. Of the eggs is a prepositional phrase. The subject one and the verb are both singular. Mentally omit the prepositional phrase to make the subject verb agreement easier to make.

Principal
Foresight College of Commerce
Pune

Example

Look at this example.

Car is the singular subject. Was is the singular helping verb which agrees with car. If we aren't careful, however, we may mistakenly label riders as the subject since it is nearer to the verb than car is. If we choose the plural noun, riders, we will incorrectly select the plural verb were.

RULE NO 3

When a sentence begins with there is – there are / here is – here are, the subject and verb are inverted. After all that you have learned already, you will undoubtedly find this topic a relatively easy one!

The verb in such constructions is obviously is or are. The subject, however, does not come BEFORE the verb.

Instead, the subject in this kind of sentence comes AFTER the verb, so you must look for it AFTER the verb.

In this example, because the subject, book, is singular, the verb must also be singular. If the subject is plural, however, then the verb must be plural.

In this example, because the subject, books is plural, the verb is also plural.

Remember: In here is – here are / there is – there are constructions, look for the subject AFTER the verb and choose a singular (is) or a plural (are) verb to agree with the subject.

MORE EXAMPLES:

- There is in many cities a desire to reduce traffic and pollution. [Desire is the subject of the verb is.]
- There are a stapler, two pens, four books, and a writing tablet on the desk. [Stapler, pens, books and writing tablet are the subjects of the verb are.]
- There were five books on the shelf. (were, agrees with the subject book)
- Here is the report you wanted. (is agrees with subject report)

RULE NO 4

Subjects don't always come before verbs in questions. Make sure you accurately identify the subject before deciding on the proper verb form to use.

Where are the pieces of this puzzle?

[Signature]
Principal
Foresight College of Commerce
Pune

Example #2:

More examples:

- Where are Joan and her daughters going? [Joan and her daughters are subjects of the verb are going]

RULE NO 5

If two subjects are joined by "and," they typically require a plural verb form.

The cow and the pig are jumping over the moon.

Example

More examples:

- Hard work and persistence are required in all rewarding accomplishments.
- Where are the pens and paper?

Subjects which include at least two nouns or pronouns connected by "and" should be paired with plural verbs.

- the manager and the employees are
- the cats and the dog run
- the man and the woman are

The verb is singular if the two subjects separated by "and" refer to the same person or thing.

- Red beans and rice is my mom's favorite dish.

Principal
Foresight College of Commerce
Pune

RULE NO 6

Or and nor as joiners work somewhat differently from and

In other words, . If the subjects are both singular and are connected by the words "or," "nor," "neither/nor," "either/or," and "not only/but also" the verb is singular.

Jessica or Christian is to blame for the accident.

Look at this sentence.

The ranger or the camper sees the bear.

singular
no 's'

singular
no 's'

's'

Two or more plural subjects joined by or (or nor) would naturally take a plural verb to agree.

The rangers or the campers see the bear.

's'

plural
's'

plural
no 's'

Subjects joined by OR or NOR take a verb that agrees with the last subject.

- Neither Bob nor George is leaving.
- Neither Bob nor his friends are leaving.
- Either the bears or the lion has escaped from the zoo.
- Neither the lion nor the bears have escaped from the zoo.

Examples

The ranger or the campers see the bear.

plural

plural

(campers see)

The rangers or the camper sees the bear.

singular

singular

(camper sees)

The rangers, the explorers, or the camper sees the bear.

plural
